

July 2020

Welcome to The Honingham Buck and the new normal. This will all feel rather strange to you, just as it is to us. As it's all new please bear with us as we get used to our new working life. We want to make this experience as good as we possibly can. There will be bumps in the road as we navigate along this new journey. We are sure with a little bit of patience and determination we will get there. Our priorities are the safety of you, our staff and to ensure your visit lives up to all your usual expectations of the Buck. A few bits of helpful information can be found by turning over.
